PURSES RAISED IN VALUE

OWNERS AT NEW ORLEANS TREATED TO AN AGREEABLE SURPRISE

Pan Zareta Makes Her Debut and Wins, but Is Forced to Extend Herself-J. J. Lillis Runs a Fast Mile.

New Orleans, La., January 7.—General Manager Joseph A, Murphy announced this afternoon that beginning Monday, January 17, when the new program book goes itno effect, all purses, except those for two-year-olds, will be substantially increased and that no offering for three-year-olds and over will be of less value than $500. The minimum in handicaps will be $600. The news of this voluntary raise in purses was highly gratifying to the horsemen.

and probably will not be a starter again for a month.

Marked improvement in the sport was the order this afternoon, due to the participation of a better grade of horses in the races. The attendance showed a substantial increase and the Palm Garden action was also of healthy aspect. The racing itself was wholesome and interesting. The feature event, a handicap at three-quarters, brought out a good band of short-distance racers, including the crack Pan Zareta. It was her debut locally and she acquitted berself in gallant fashion by winning after a gruelling drive to outstay Ahara and Carbide, the former challenging gamely in the last sixteenth. Fast time was recorded during the day. The track record for three-eighths was reduced for the second time this season, when Westy Hogan, a first-time starter, owned by John O. Whitlow, ran the distance in 35½. The colt is a half-brother to carey Jones. He raced like a good one and sprinted away from the others as if they were standing still.

FORECAST OF JOCKEY CLUB ACTION.

New York, January 7.—At the annual meeting of the Jockey Club, to be held January 13, nothing but routine business will be transacted. Reports will be received from the various departments, financial, breeding and otherwise. There will be an election of officers and no changes are in the prospective. Neither are there any proposals for the addition of new members to the exclusive list. The selling race amendments proposed by Schuyler L. Parsons will not be discussed until the meeting of the stewards in February, when it is probable the dates for the coming season of racing, appointment of officials and various changes in the rules will be under consideration.

Gifford A. Cochran is being congratulated from all sides on his success at New Orleans with his two-year-olds.

Price McKinney and James Corrigan, partners in the Wickliffe Stud, have begun to build the largest individual steel plant in this country.

"Our horses are in excellent condition," said Mr. McKinney, "and we hope to make a good showing with our home product when they meet the imported stock. I think we have a splendid lot of horses as a whole."

BLARNEY TAKES THE FEATURE RACE.

VIGILANCE A FIXED RULE AT HAVANA

Prominent Owner Brought Under Discipline for Objectionable Advertising

Havana, Cuba, January 7.—The Cuba-American Jockey Club is leaving no stone unturned in an effort to keep racing at Oriental Park on the highest possible plane. Several popular jockeys have been suspended and fined for unfair riding tactics, owners of horses have been fined for violation of the rules and now it develops that an owner who has a stable here has been made to discontinue advertising of "good thing" variety.

The following correspondence explains itself and indicates that the Cuba-American Jockey Club will not permit irregularities of any kind in the conduct of the meeting here, nor countenance any methods which will tend to bring the turf into disrepute.

methods which will tend to bring the turr in disrepute.

The following letter was addressed to J. Y.
Hedrick, manager of the Maryland Stables Co., Baltimore, Md., on December 24, and signed Charles F. Flynn, secretary of the Cuba-Americ Jockey Club:

Charles F. Figni, secretary of the Cuba-American Jockey Club:

"Dear Sir: Our attention has been called to your advertisement, which this association and our stewards agree is not for the best interests of racing. It borders on to the old 'get-rich-quick' method, which has been tabooed by all reputable jockey clubs and racing associations, to say nofhing of the ban placed against it by the United States government.

"We, therefore, wish to notify you that the Cuba-American Jockey Club will not tolerate your methods, and you are hereby notified to discontinue such advertising or we will be compelled to refuse the entries of all horses racing in the name of J. W. Hedrick or the Maryland Stables Co.

"You will oblige us by advising us by cable of your intentions in the matter by January 1, 1916, and, if a satisfactory reply has not been received by that time all entries of your stable will be refused."

In reply to this letter Mr. Hedrick cabled:

In reply to this letter Mr. Hedrick cabled: "Letter received. Will stop advertising."

"Letter received. Will stop advertising."

It is pleasing to note that Mr. Hedrick immediately recognized the justice of the position taken by the association and that he acquiesed to their wishes in the matter by at once discontinuing the objectionable advertising. Mr. Hedrick and the members of his family will arrive in Havana in a few days to remain here for the winter.

The sporting editor of the New York Evening Sun and a writer of the highest reputation, is a recent visitor to Havana who is much impressed with the future possibilities of this city as a winter racing point. He has just concluded a visit of two weeks here and, before salling for Key West yesterday, gave out the following interview relative to the racing situation in Havana:

"I was in Cuba last year before the opening of weeks here and, before sailing for Key West yesterday, gave out the following interview relative to the racing situation in Havana:

"I was in Cuba last year before the opening of Oriental Park and liked the country and the people so much I determined to come back again. The plant which Mr. Brown and his associates have built in Marianao was not fully completed during my visit last winter and I experienced one of the surprises of my life when I attended the races here the day after by arrival this winter. It was Sunday and I never saw a more brilliant gathering at any sporting event anywhere. Of course, we have tremendous crowds at the races on big days in New York, but it should be remembered that the sport has been almost an institution with us for fifty years.

"Time will work a constant improvement in the racing situation in Havana, as the plant of the Cuba-American Jockey Club is second to none anywhere. Belmont Park is bigger and cost more money, but we have no course in or around New York, outside of the home of the Westchester Racing Association, that your local course does not surpass in equipment, while for beauty of surroudings and the placement of the clubhouse and grandstand and ability to see a race perfectly. Oriental Park is easily ahead of any race course I have ever seen.

"Cuba has been a scaled book to most Americans, but now that railroad and steamship transportation has been improved and the war has diverted tourist travel from Europe, more and more Americans are turning their attention to the beauties of the tropical countries of which Cuba easily stands first. We have many racing enthusiasts around New York, Philadelphia and Boston, and it is a question of only a short time until they will come to Havana where they may enjoy a perfect climate and follow their favorite sport. The racing which Cubans knew formerly seemed to give them a wrong idea of the pastime. There is as much difference between the character of the sport as it was conducted at Almendares in years gone by and at Oriental oriental Park at present, as there is between cheese and chalk.

"Mr. Brown has surrounded himself with a thoroughly efficient corps of racing officials who know the business—and it is a business as legitimate as banking or any other pursuit—and their presence is a guarantee to the people of Cuba and, to all others who visit the race track, that their interests will be safeguarded. The rules of racing are being rigorously enforced and no questlenable practices will be permitted; objectionable characters, who are under the ban of other reputable race courses, are excluded from the grounds at Oriental Park. This policy is bound to make friends and I expect on the occasion of my next visit to Cuba a year hence to find even more enthusiasm and larger crowds at the races.

the find even more enthusiasm and larger crowds at the races.

"Havana is bound to be the banner racing point in winter for the people of the North American continent and when conditions here are understood the best horses from America will race here. I have great faith in the Havana meeting for turning out and developing good riding material, a thing the turf is greatly in need of. I believe the present meeting at Oriental Park will turn out some jockeys, now practically unheard of, who will be a credit to the great pastime which has been trely designated the sport of kings."

There was another big influx of visitors at Oriental Parak this afternoon. Close finishes were the order, with the winners under hard drives through the homestretch.

Jockey J. Pearce, who had the mount on Charles the homestretch. Jockey J. Pearce, who had the mount on Charles Francis in the fourth race, was indefinitely suspended for an unsatisfactory ride. The stewards were of the opinion that the boy could at least have been third with his mount.

Two of the winners, Ruth Strickland and Mr. Snigs, were bid up. M. Burns was responsible in both instances. Both horses were bought in. Wanda Pitzer was claimed by J. B. Goodman for $925.
